The Coaching Basics course covers everything our coaches will need to know to coach youth sports successfully, from guidelines for developing a sound coaching philosophy to tips on ensuring safety and preparing for game day. Our coaches will be exposed to a wealth of practical information, including step-by-step plans for providing our athletes with a safe, enjoyable, and valuable sporting experience.
This course is not just a classroom exercise: it also requires coaches to read the book and complete group activities. Day 2

American Red Cross Sport Safety Training

7 hrs

An injured athlete is every coach's worst fear. Whether they are coaching little league, high school students or this country's elite athletes, they feel responsible for making sure their athletes are safe both in practice and during competition. But sports-related injuries do occur. That's why the American Red Cross and the United States Olympic Committee have teamed up to bring you a newly revised Sport Safety Training Program specifically designed for coaches, athletic trainers and others interested in sports.

The goals of Sport Safety Training are simple:

- To keep athletes safe
- To enable coaches and trainers to prevent, prepare for and respond to sports related injuries
- To raise awareness of safety issues in athletics
- To provide an atmosphere in which athletes can train and compete with the confidence that their coach has taken a sport safety course

Sport Safety Training is designed to help coaches, athletic trainers and other participants identify and eliminate potentially hazardous conditions in various sports environments, recognize emergencies and make appropriate decisions for first aid care. The course stresses the basic steps to follow in the case of an emergency, beginning with the most important step---the decision to act--- and helps coaches confront their fears of stepping forward to provide assistance. It also helps to define their roles as the first link in the Emergency Medical Services (EMS) System. The training features video, hands-on classroom instruction, and interactive group exercises and activities, plus a handy reference book to use and keep with you during competitions and practices.

The training program will include the following courses:

- Sports Injury Prevention
- First Aid
- Adult CPR
- Child CPR

To successfully complete the course, the participants must attend all class sessions, correctly answer at least 80 percent of the questions in the appropriate section(s) on the written exam(s), participate in all skill sessions and scenarios, and demonstrate competency in all required skills. Participants will be awarded certificates for having successfully completed these courses. Renewal of these certificates will be each coaches own responsibility. Renewal courses will be made available through the department as well.

Day 2 continued

Introduction to Sampson County Parks and Recreation Department-Youth Athletics

1 hr

This section of the coaches training will deal strictly with the introduction of the coaches to Sampson County Youth Athletics; its Youth Sports Philosophy; its internal structure; and its leagues setup and format.

- Wrap-up Meetings
- Rule Development
- Game Day Procedures
